

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.

Since passage of Indiana No-Call law I do not receive unwanted telemarketers calling.

Indiana should be the model for the nation.